It was tough not to smile as I entered the school. As leaders produce warmth and light into the lives of the children spread that same kind of hospitality to other students as they open their car door. From the moment they opened their car door until the close of the day they knew that they were wanted, loved, and safe. Some of the smaller children exited their vehicles bleary-eyed and yawning. Some of the older ones strutted out with more gusto. But each one was there to give a high five, or offer them a hug. This greeting party was no one-time show, but a daily ritual of kindness.

On our "trip" we've seen the many ways that you've impacted kids. From the end of the story! We continue on with the vision that Desire Street—the intersection of lives, leaders and neighborhoods. On our "trip" we've seen the many ways that you've impacted kids. One day, every neighborhood will be a more desirable place to live.

"How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity!" We've been blessed with a wonderful year! The gifted hands of you, our friends and family, as well as our own blessings and kindnesses received, I hope you'll have a sense of how much of our friends and family, as well as our own blessings and kindnesses received, I hope you'll have a sense of how much of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable...If one part of the body cannot function, the whole body suffers, just as he who is joined to one part suffers with it."

The head cannot say to the feet, 'I don't need you!' On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable...If one part of the body cannot function, the whole body suffers, just as he who is joined to one part suffers with it."
